

July 28th 2005

For immediate release:

Vocalist/Songwriter, "Jeordie" took the win at the "Sauza Tequila's Live All Summer Series" Battle of the Bands on, July 27th, at the Hard Rock Cafe, Downtown Phoenix.

The songstress along with, Jason Messer on lead guitar, and percussionist Billy Three Trees from Sedona. The competition, which was judged by D. Schneider from the legendary 80's band "Twisted Sister," was fierce. Out of 100 applicants only five bands were competing for the chance to open for the national recording artists, "OK GO" playing Aug. 10th at the Hard Rock Cafe in Phx. The Winners also took home an autographed electric guitar signed by Schneider.

"There are really some fantastic local bands in Phoenix and it was a pleasure listening to each one of them," Jeordie said speaking highly of her competition.

Jeordie has been performing and writing music her entire life. Born into a family of musical background; She is daughter of 60's musical Woodstock performer Melanie. Her only desire has been to achieve the ability to make music that can get inside and touch her audience. She's said it was the admiration of her mother and various musical artists that have made her follow her dream to do the same.

Jeordie along with Jason Messer have been actively performing together all around Phoenix and surrounding areas for the past five years; their partnership on stage comes together naturally. They have been gaining recognition by their listeners and growing fan base one show at a time.

Jeordie's 12-track freshman CD entitled "Can I Ask You Something" is available on CDBABY.COM, and at her performances; also due out this fall is a live performance CD entitled "Jeordie Bootlegs," a collection of some of her best live performances from the past year.

Jeordie will be performing Wed. Aug 10th at the Hard Rock Cafe opening for the national act "OK GO" and also Sat. Oct. 8th at the Sedona Arts festival in Sedona, AZ from 3-4:30 pm

For more info on Jeordie and upcoming shows;

Or to request a photo.

Visit

Jeordie.com

Or Email music.Jeordie@gmail.com